

Inspiration in teaching Legal Studies

Presented by Neil Kusi-Appauh

Improve the engagement of your students, have fun and gain an edge in preparing for the HSC examination.

Format: Face to Face - Individual

Audience: Teachers new to Legal Studies and/or wanting to develop resources / skills

Description

This one-day course offers a practical guide for teachers on how to engage students in Legal Studies. It has particular relevance for those new to the subject and provides ideas, inspiration and resources that can easily be applied in the classroom. Participants gain insights into the syllabus (especially future examination directions under the new syllabus) as well as programming ideas and teaching strategies. The course also offers opportunities for collegial discussion and sharing of ideas and strategies for effective classroom practice. Teachers attending will have access to a range of resources which provide ongoing inspiration for your students.

Additional notes about this format

Course Objectives

In this workshop participants will be presented with a range of strategies and resources to support teaching and learning in a Legal Studies classroom. Delivery will be through a powerpoint presentation supported by interactive discussion. An accompanying workshop booklet will provide a valuable resource base while additional material will be available to download. A whiteboard will provide a basis for recording ideas and suggestions. The interactive ideas sharing format and group workshop sessions will provide an opportunity to learn and share ideas, resources and develop networks for future teaching and learning.
