About the team

Annalisa Ramundi

Presenter

Annalisa is an Italian and English teacher at Monte Sant Angelo Mercy College. She has a Bachelor of Arts, Diploma in Education, Diploma of Religious Studies and has taught in both the public and private systems.

Annalisa has successfully organised, led and participated in many International Language and Cultural Tours since 2003, believing that the educational benefits of International Tours provide students with the opportunity to further develop their understanding of content outside of the classroom and, in turn guide them into being a holistic student.

Maria Gaudio

Presenter

Maria is a teacher of Italian and has a passion for Italy and it's culture. She has a Bachelor of Education in primary teaching and a Masters of Arts in International Studies. Maria has studied in Italy in both Lecce and Siena. She has worked in both the public and private systems as well as in adult education for COASIT.

Maria has successfully lead Italian Language and Culture Tours and believes in the educational benefits such trips bring to the classroom and in the development of a holistic student. Maria is keen to share her knowledge in planning and running a successful tour. She is currently teaching at Monte Sant' Angelo Mercy College.
