

Music for special education teachers

Presented by Dianne Langan

Integrate musical strategies that can engage, foster creativity, promote learning and address the specific needs of students for non-music and music specialists.

Format: Face to Face

Audience: K-12 teachers and assistants working with learning support and special needs.

Description

Integrate musical strategies that can engage, foster creativity, promote learning and address the specific needs of students for non-music and music specialists. This course is hands on and offers practical ideas which facilitate (access) tapping in to the creative and learning potential of music.

Additional notes about this format

Musical ideas for K-12 special education teachers and assistants.

Occurrences

Start Date	Location	Price
20/11/2018	Northern Sydney	$347 + GST

Sessions

No session information is available.

About the presenter

Dianne Langan

Creator

Dianne has worked as a music educator and therapist for over twenty-five years. Her PhD examined the relationship between music education and music therapy. She has held a variety of music teaching and therapy positions which have included the University of Technology, Sydney, health settings and Schools for Specific Purposes. Dianne is currently teaching at Wenona in North Sydney. Her experience includes a range of publications, presentations and adult education forums.

Enrol now to secure your spot

Limited spots are available. Please enrol online or fax your enrolment to 1300 667 691 to secure your spot.

Please note, by submitting this enrolment form you are confirming that you have been given financial approval by your employer to attend this course. Cancellation advice should be given in writing 7 days before the commencement of this course.

Product: Music for special education teachers

Occurrence Date:

Your Name:

Your email address:

Employer name:

Employer phone:

Enrol online at <http://tta.edu.au>