

The higher order thinking scaffolding toolkit

Presented by Sabreena Taylor

Time poor teachers can learn simple ways to scaffold higher order thinking from home and receive a large kit of 'use tomorrow' tools OR work together at your school.

Format: Online

Audience: Teachers wanting to increase higher order thinking activities in their classroom

Description

Each week the participants will learn about effective ways to scaffold higher order thinking in their classroom, including graphic organisers plus strategies and processes that really work. There will be a webinar on each of learning new concepts, critical thinking, problem solving, creativity, collaboration and learning conversations, and metacognition and reflection.
