Description

After teaching tens of thousands of Australian students to code and build apps, we're sharing our Code Camp secrets with you, Australia's teachers. Together we can improve Australia's digital future and engage students to achieve incredible outcomes.

While there will certainly be challenges along the way, bringing coding and digital literacy into schools provides infinite possibilities and opportunities for students and you, their teachers. To ensure each student finds their place in the new digital world, Code Camp has applied our learnings from the co-curricular space, to a school classroom environment.

This masterclass for will answer your questions:

What is the role of coding in the new curriculum?

What tools already exist that can be effortlessly introduced to kickstart coding within your classroom?

What do you need to know to be able to deliver, troubleshoot and assess coding content?

How can you keep this momentum and continuously evolve within the digital landscape?
