

Engaging Pacific Islander and Maori students in Australia (1.5hr)

Presented by David Lakisa

Want to engage more fully Pacific Islander and Maori students in your classroom? This interactive workshop, tailored for twilight PD sessions, aims to improve differen...

Format: 4. At My School

Audience: All learning areas, Suitable for Everyone

Description

The interactive workshop is designed to assist educators in developing a greater understanding of cross-cultural competencies in and outside of the classroom. Using the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (APST) framework, the workshop also aims to improve practical applications when working with Pacific Islander and Maori learners.

Sessions

No session information is available.

About the presenter

David Lakisa

Creator

David Lakisa has worked in the education sector at various secondary, tertiary and private levels for the past 15 years. He is currently a coordinator of religious education programs and teacher in-service as well as a PhD candidate researching diversity management at the University Technology Sydney (UTS) Business School. A former PDHPE teacher at St Peter Claver College (QLD), Eagle Vale and Granville Boys High Schools, David was also been a sessional academic at Western Sydney University in the School of Education (2008-2016). In sum, David has been heavily involved in numerous research, education, government and community-based initiatives for Pacific Islanders and Maori in Australia and across the Pacific region for the past two decades.

Enrol now to secure your spot

Limited spots are available. Please enrol online or fax your enrolment to 1300 667 691 to secure your spot.

Please note, by submitting this enrolment form you are confirming that you have been given financial approval by your employer to attend this course. Cancellation advice should be given in writing 7 days before the commencement of this course.

Product: Engaging Pacific Islander and Maori students in Australia
(1.5hr)

Occurrence Date:

Your Name:

Your email
address:

Employer name:

Employer phone:

Enrol online at <http://tta.edu.au>